

Course Description	Participation in the practice of ambulatory general internal medicine in a community setting
Course Objectives	The goal of this rotation is to integrate medical students into the care and follow up patients with diseases of the GI tract, liver, and pancreas. Students will spend time in the outpatient clinic, endoscopy suite, and the inpatient setting. Students will be exposed to a broad range of inpatient and outpatient conditions including inflammatory bowel disease, gastritis, esophagitis, cirrhosis, GI bleeds, and hepatic disorders.
Course Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Lectures, clinics, conferences to be attended? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• o GI conference (Wed 7:30-8:30am)</li> <li>• o Internal medicine Grand Rounds</li> </ul> </li> <li>• In what location will students be observed on this elective? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• o Inpatient rounds and outpatient GI Clinic</li> </ul> </li> <li>• How will students receive mid-course, formative feedback on their performance? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• o Verbal feedback will be provided to the student at the mid-point of the rotation to allow opportunity for performance improvement</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Oral presentation, written assignments required? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• o No</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Research requirement? No</li> </ul>
Course Schedule Requirements	No on-call requirement. Student is present during usual clinical hours (7:00am – 6:00pm, Monday – Friday, excluding holidays as determined by the ECU calendar).

Duration	2 Weeks	Location	Vidant Medical Center
-----------------	---------	-----------------	-----------------------

Designation	Elective	Revised	08.26.2017
--------------------	----------	----------------	------------