

Course Description	The purpose of this course is to facilitate students' understanding of: health policy formation and the roles and responsibilities of health professionals in health policy formation and implementation; the effects of health policy on the socioeconomic and political environment and ultimately on population health; and fundamentals of leadership and change management strategies relating to health and healthcare. Students will work in interprofessional teams in two course phases: i) theory and reflection and ii) an experiential learning phase.
Course Objectives	Upon completion of this course, the participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Objective 1: Examine the relationship between policy and health determinants;• Objective 2: Critically examine current health policy formation and how it could be improved;• Objective 3: Analyze current health policy issues and how to address them efficiently;• Objective 4: Analyze current health policy (e.g. the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act) its provisions, initiatives, incentives, and challenges for care providers and other health professionals;• Objective 5: Apply critical and systems thinking, interprofessional collaboration and other policy assessment skills;• Objective 6: Examine roles and responsibilities of health professionals in health policy formation, implementation and reform.
Course Activities	The course requires the following activities: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. In-class theory review lectures, discussions and presentations2. Maintaining Self-Reflection Diaries (SRD) with entries about reflections of the learning and learning processes and content3. Readings & Documentary Viewing Assignments4. In-class discussion and reflection of health policy formation process and the role of health professionals5. Interprofessional team for a case study & analysis6. In-class presentations, reflection and discussion of the case study & analysis7. Post-Reflection with SRD entries
Course Schedule Requirements	There are no on-call requirements for this rotation

Duration	4 weeks	Location	Brody School of Medicine
-----------------	---------	-----------------	--------------------------

Designation	Non-Clinical	Revised	03/22/2019
--------------------	--------------	----------------	------------