

*Special Permission Required***

Course Description	Students in the Sports Medicine course will gain a basic understanding of the evaluation, diagnosis, and management of common disorders seen in primary care sports medicine and orthopedics. They will communicate effectively as a member of our sports medicine clinical team which includes physicians and athletic trainers.
Course Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Complete a relevant history and physical examination on sports medicine patients and those with orthopedic related conditions</li> <li>• Develop a differential diagnosis and recommend a treatment plan for commonly encountered sports medicine conditions</li> <li>• Evaluate patient injury/illness and create return to play and prevention strategies for each individual case</li> <li>• Create plans for management of primary care sports medicine and orthopedic related conditions using consultations with specialists</li> <li>• Appropriately utilize imaging options and special services such as physical therapy and occupational therapy</li> <li>• Demonstrate professionalism</li> </ul>
Course Activities	Students in this course will participate in a variety of outpatient sports and medicine clinics, physical therapy clinics, and attend selected athletic events as opportunities arise. Additionally, students will complete a presentation on an assigned topic.
Course Schedule Requirements	No on-call requirement. Student is present during usual clinical hours (7:00am – 6:00pm, Monday – Friday, excluding holidays as determined by the ECU calendar) and evening/weekend events as assigned.

Duration	2 weeks	Location	Family Medicine Center, Sports Medicine Clinic
-----------------	---------	-----------------	------------------------------------------------

Designation	Primary Care, Elective	Revised	11.11.2021
--------------------	------------------------	----------------	------------